

International Seafood Sustainability Association (ISSA) ASSOCIATE Membership Application

Opportunity: To expand participation in ISSA and its efforts to promote sustainable tuna stocks and their ecosystems, the organization has established an Associate Membership category for smaller processors, traders and marketers committed to supporting ISSF initiatives and complying with ISSF conservation measures – but for whom full membership may not be the right fit.

Before completing this application, please visit the ISSA site to read about the benefits of ISSA membership and the application process and timeline.

Associate Membership Criteria: Processors, traders or marketers defined as primarily purchasers of raw tuna for processing or purchasers of raw tuna or finished tuna products for resale. To be eligible, a company and its majority-owned subsidiaries must generate less than US$50 million in annual tuna revenues from sales of finished goods/frozen loins and/or trade the round ton equivalent of 10,000 tons but less than 100,000 tons of tuna annually, in the aggregate.

Application Fee (one-time, non-refundable): $25,000

Application Process:

- Introductory review of ISSA By-Laws, antitrust policy, and existing ISSF conservation measures
- Complete application (attached) and submit application fee
- Successful completion of ISSF traceability review to ensure applicant's ability to comply with ISSF traceability requirements
- Completion of an initial 6-month period of demonstrated compliance with ISSF conservation measures
- Applicants are required to identify any current inability to comply with ISSF conservation measures as this inability will be considered by the Board in evaluation of the application.

ISSA Associate Members must:

- Complete reviews that show compliance with all ISSA conservation measures
- Pay annual US$25,000 dues
- Abide by ISSA By-Laws and sign tag agreement
- Abide by terms of antitrust compliance policy

The ISSA By-Laws include provisions to the effect that:

Membership meetings are held annually for the purposes of presentation of outcomes from ISSF Scientific Advisory Committee Meetings, presentation of progress against ISSF strategic plan, electing ISSA Board Members (every two years) and other business.

All members of ISSA are subject to its Compliance Policy. Associate Membership, as other membership categories, can be terminated for failure to adhere to ISSF sustainability standards as provided in ISSA By-Laws and policies, including its Compliance Policy. If membership of any member is terminated for failure to adhere to ISSF sustainability standards, a company may not reapply for membership for 2 years.

Timing: Due to meeting and review requirements membership, applications will be processed in the order that the completed application and fee are received by ISSA. Associate Membership is effective upon receipt of annual dues, as invoiced by ISSA, upon process completion.

The International Seafood Sustainability Trade Association (ISSA) is a trade association whose members are tuna processors, traders and marketers who, by virtue of their ISSA membership, agree to follow the conservation measures implemented by the International Seafood Sustainability Foundation (ISSF).

ISSF is a global partnership among science, the tuna industry and the environmental non-governmental organization community with a mission to undertake science-based initiatives for the long-term conservation and sustainable use of tuna stocks, reducing bycatch and promoting ecosystem health.
